Principal's Letter...

You have made it! Your journey started many years ago, and along the way you have been able to witness tremendous change in the world as well as on the home front. During your four years at WHS, you have seen the impact of global financial collapse as well as the ever increasing speed of technological advances.

Each time a group of seniors graduates, I wonder about the future impact they will have. Your group is no different except that you have witnessed so much change in a short amount of time. As you move on, it will be up to you to gain a broad understanding of everything around you. You'll have to wonder if global warming is real, if oil will really run out, and if technological advances will ever slow down. My guess is that you will be motivated to create huge change that will create a positive future for us all.

The memories you have created have been great ones and will be talked about for years to come. The talent displayed on the field and courts, in concerts and on the stage have raised the bar high for future WHS students. You came to play and always played hard. I was proud to be part of your celebrations, each and every one of them.

Thank you for making WHS a great place everyday. Your unselfish contributions have been the backbone of WHS. Through good times and tough times, we always worked together to make things alright for everyone. You are the only limit on the rest of your life. Dream, learn, live, love and do it all at 110 percent! Thank you for the lessons you have taught me. I will miss you all!

—Mr. Tracy

Yearbook Dedication...

The 2010 Hourglass Yearbook Staff dedicates this book to this year's retiring staff.

Mr. Michael Nee, Assistant Principal
Mr. John Wood, Science Teacher
Barbara Bishop, Guidance Secretary

With over fifty years of service to the Wilmington community between them, these three individuals have touched the lives of thousands of students during their time with us. The entire yearbook staff would like to wish these three the best as they "graduate" with the Class of 2010!

Thank you all for everything you've done here at WHS!

Class History...

The Class of 2010 began its high school journey determined to make a difference at WHS and in the community. Recognizing that it was their time to get involved this class of rising stars set out to achieve its goals with determination and enthusiasm. For the past four years the Class of 2010 was lead by a group of hardworking class officers and advisors who organized and orchestrated several different fund raisers and entertaining events. Being a class of diverse talents, students contributed to many areas both inside and outside the walls of Wilmington High School.

It was August of 2006 when the Class of 2010 arrived at WHS excited and nervous, but eager to make a name for themselves. Getting right to business they elected their class leaders: Randi Davis as President, Kyle Bernardo as Vice President, Liam Gately as Secretary, and Caleb Rogers as Treasurer. Additionally Amanda Hollenbeck was appointed as Public Relations officer and Cole Carter as Club Liaison. They had no problem adjusting to the hectic but exciting life of high school. Demonstrating school spirit during Spirit Week and at the Pep Rallies, joining clubs, and playing sports, the class excelled, winning the coveted President's Cup. With the help of class advisors, Miss Kassin and Mrs. Hooper, the class co-sponsored two highly successful fund raisers – The Spring Fling and The Talent Show. Their confidence and ability to meet challenges demonstrated that the Class of 2010 could and would make a difference at school and in the community.

As Sophomores, they were no longer at the bottom of the ladder. The Class of 2010 had gained some knowledge and experience and was ready to get more involved at WHS. They chose Katia Reilly as their new class President and re-elected Kyle Bernardo, Liam Gately, and Caleb Rogers to their previous positions while Amanda Hollenbeck and Cole Carter were once again appointed Public Relations Officer and Club Liaison. There was also a change in the school's administration as Ms. Deacon joined the WHS staff as the new Assistant Principal. In the fall the class joined in the celebration when the Red Sox won the World Series for the second time in four years. Since joint fund raisers seemed to work for them, they helped to run the Mr. and Miss WHS contest which was held with the Class of 2008. With the charismatic Tom Barry as host, the event drew a large crowd and was quite successful. Academically the Class of 2010 was challenged by the dreaded Sophomore research project, and the state of Massachusetts decided to add another MCAS requirement. Some took the Technology MCAS while others took the Biology MCAS. The Spring Fling held in April was a popular dance, and the class had no problem selling tickets for this fundraiser. Another very popular event was the Talent Show that they co-sponsored again with Expressions. The show had a record number of gifted contestants and attendants. Dana Ferranti won first place with his amazing juggling act. Additionally, the class sold flowers for the seniors to give to their parents at graduation. The class officers were already planning for future fun as they booked the Hillview Country Club for Junior Prom and the Danversport Yacht Club for Senior Prom.

Junior year was a time for change. As the country elected Barack Obama as its first black president, the Class of 2010 elected four new class officers: Olivia Fuller as President, Jackie Fitzpatrick as Vice President, Laurel Pickett as Secretary, and Cole Carter as Treasurer. Amanda Hollenbeck remained the Public Relations officer and Katia Reilly served as a Class Representative. Hosted by Cole Carter and Shannon Jones, the Mr. and Miss WHS competition was the first fundraising event of the year. Steph Weymouth won the crown for Miss WHS when she and her friends entertained the crowd with their hip hop Fresh Prince of Belair skit while Kevin Flanagan ('09) won the honor of Mr. WHS. As in years prior, the event drew a large crowd who cheered on the contestants. Once again the Class of 2010 sponsored a sell out Talent Show in the spring showcasing musicians, singers, dancers and more. They also got involved with the annual Prom Fashion Show this year by sponsoring a raffle. Alicia Days, Katelyn Hayes and Jaqui Lyman led the Junior Prom Committee as it planned and organized an unforgettable night of dancing and good times at the Hillview Country Club. Junior Prom King and Queen were Cole Carter and Steph Kelly. In addition to all of these events, members of the class were actively involved in school clubs and community organizations. Many of the Class of 2010 athletes made Varsity sports teams and contributed to successful seasons for football, basketball, hockey, soccer, baseball, softball and lacrosse. Not only did they prove themselves in sports but in the classroom as well – with thirty six juniors were inducted into the National Honor Society. They finished Junior Year by electing class officers Olivia Fuller, Jackie Fitzpatrick, Cole Carter and Sarah Choi. Amanda Hollenbeck and Katia Reilly remained as Public Relations Officer and Class Representative.

The first three years of high school flew by and suddenly it was Senior Year for the Class of 2010. Dedication and hard work paid off for the class as they excelled in all areas and made their presence known to the community. It was also time to focus on college, and the Class of 2010 spent many hours visiting schools and filling out applications. The senior costumes and decorations for Spirit Week were incredible, winning accolades from teachers and even Mr. Tracy. The seniors were a force to be reckoned with this year as many of the Varsity sports teams enjoyed successful seasons. Topping off a great season, the football team beat arch rival Tewksbury in the annual Turkey Day game. The boys soccer team went undefeated in the regular season behind the strong goal tending of Marty Bamberg and tough defense of Colin Foley and Gott Saenchandi. The Field Hockey team surprised everyone by their marked improvement and a winning record that qualified them for the state tournament – the first time since 2003. Sporting dyed black hair, the girls gave it their all in post season play. During the winter sixteen talented seniors made the boys hockey team. We watched with excitement as Dan Cushing and company plowed over opponents going undefeated in the regular season before dying their hair bright pink for the post season. Girls and boys basketball had respectable seasons, qualifying for post season play too. In December, the Town Crier named Caleb Rogers and Brittney McLaughlin athletes of the year. And while no seniors won the titles of Mr. and Miss WHS, the event was still a huge success for the class. The drama club chose a production called Songs for a New World where several seniors including Katie Adley and Steph Weymouth gave stand out performances. The Class of 2010 was very aggressive with fundraising, sponsoring many repeat events while adding several new ones. The Prom Fashion Show was tons of fun for all, and it got everyone psyched for the prom season. Several seniors performed in the annual talent show including a surprise appearance by Brendan Mooney who took second place with his hysterical comedy routine. In the midst of all this fun, a handful of seniors participated in the school's accreditation process by making presentations to the NEASC visiting team, and teachers and administration applauded them for a job well done. A memorable Senior Prom at Danversport Yacht Club on May 7th and several fun senior events capped off a fantastic final year for the Class of 2010.

As the high school journey for the Class of 2010 comes to an end, many have confidence that these stars will continue to rise following graduation. Their achievements and successes have made an impact on Wilmington High School and the community. In the past four years, members of the Class of 2010 have grown into caring, responsible adults who are accountable for their actions and possess the attributes required to be the innovators for tomorrow. They leave WHS with fond memories and the knowledge and courage required for embracing the future. To the graduates of the Class of 2010...

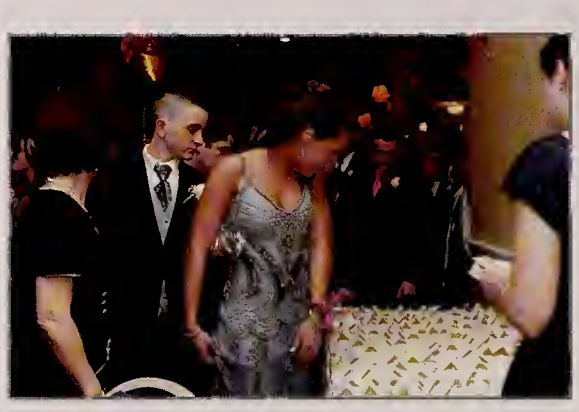
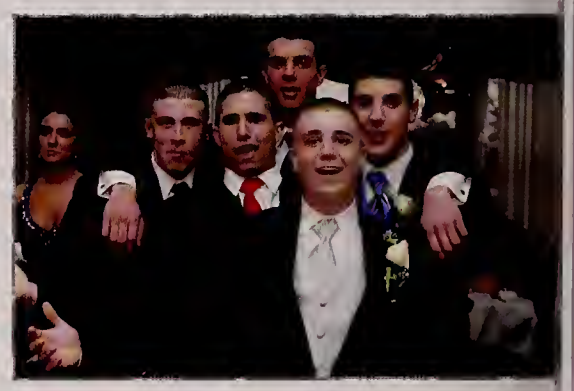
Junior Prom

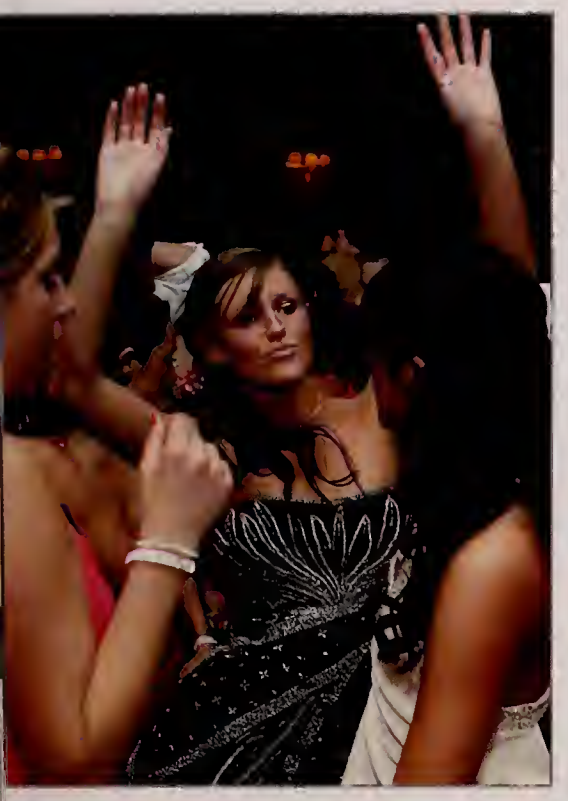
Junior Prom for the Class of 2010 was held on Friday, April 3, 2009 at Hillview Country Club in North Reading. All in attendance dressed in gorgeous dresses and handsome tuxedos, ready to dance the night away. As prom favors, souvenir glasses were given out at the end of the night after hours of celebration with friends, good music, a variety of delicious buffet foods, and dancing. The night couldn't have been possible without the Junior Prom Committee and 2010 Class Advisors, Mrs. Hooper and Ms. Kassin who worked tirelessly to prepare for the long awaited night. Junior Prom may be over, but the night lives on in wonderful memories!

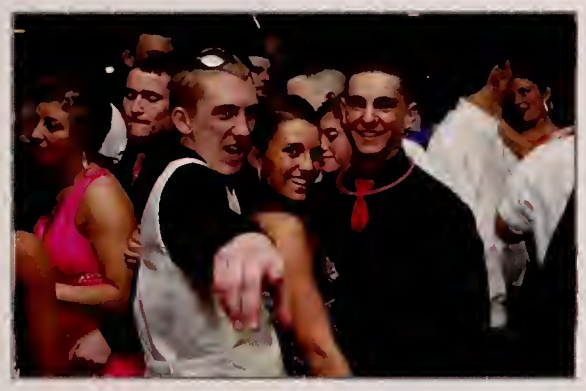
The entire crowd took a short break from dancing to pose for the yearbook photographer. What a fun group!





Dancing the night away, the Class of 2010 ha a Junior Prom that they will remember forever





Whether out on the dance floor or in line for a group photo, everyone loved having their pictures taken!

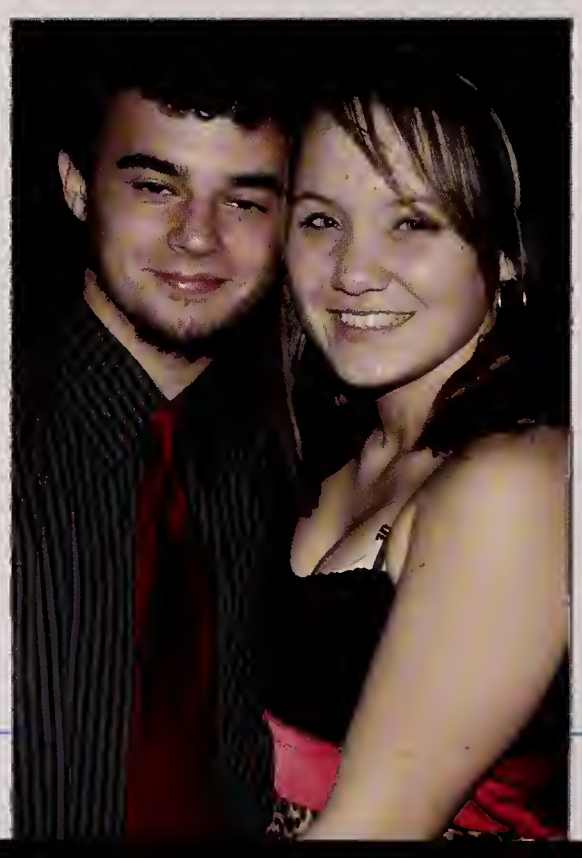
Homecoming

Sponsored by the WHS Athletics Department and assisted by the Class of 2009, this year's Homecoming Dance, held on Friday, October 9, 2009 in the WHS gymnasium, was another great success! Kicking off the 2009 Spirit Week, many students and alumni danced the night away. For seniors, their last WHS Homecoming ended on a great note with the announcements of Homecoming Court! From start to finish the night was one not to be forgotten!

The Class of 2010's "Best Male Dancer" Mike Mazzei worked the crowd with his impressive dance moves all night long.



Supporting the Wilmington Athletics program, students and alumni hit the dance floor to kick off this year's Spirit Week festivities!

The dance floor was hopping all night!

The 2009 Homecoming Court included Evan Butters, John Moriarty, Dan Cushing, Kevin Flaherty, Cole Carter, Alex Copp, Carolina Veloso, Laurel Pickett, Katia Reilly, and Steph Kelly while Rich Barry and Olivia Fuller were crowned as this year's King and Queen.

Spirit Week CLASS DAY

The 2009 Spirit Week began with Class Day. Seniors, assuming the traditional costume theme, marched throughout the school in elaborate outfits ranging from animals to various characters from our childhood. Juniors strut their stuff resembling celebrities, such as Michael Jackson, Lady Gaga, The Beatles, and everything in between. Sophomores joined the chaos with a career theme, filling the halls with police men and women, as well as doctors and any other profession you could think. The Freshman Class chose a sports theme and ambled through the building wearing team jerseys, emblems, and even sport equipment.

Dan Baima applied his sense of humor (along with everyone's fear of catching the H1N1 virus) to inspire his Class Day costume.

If "Bossman" and the "King Crab" were in a fight, who do you think would win?

Even if they weren't in costume, everyone was in on the fun today!

Pirates, leprechauns, and penguins roamed the halls of WHS in search of school spirit.

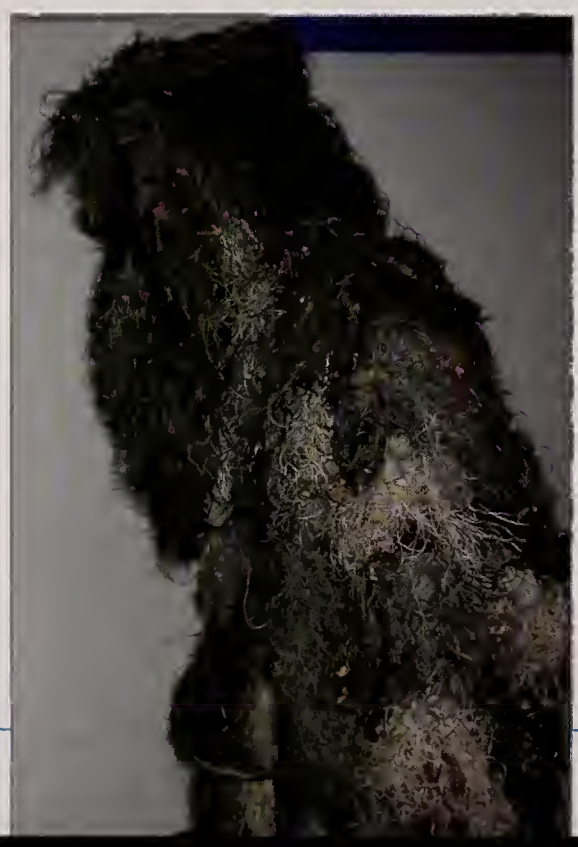
Although many students coordinated outfits with their friends, classrooms were filled with a hodge podge of characters as the day progressed.

Spirit Week

ARMY DAY

Following Class Day, this year's Spirit Week continued on with Army Day. The halls were filled with students and faculty, showing their endless pride for the various branches of our country's military service. From hallways to classrooms, an assortment of Navy, Army, Marine, and Air Force attire could be found. Even a student wearing a ghillie suit managed his way through the halls. All day long, dog tags jingled and boots sounded throughout the building, keeping pride and school spirit alive at WHS.

At ease, gentlemen. Once again, students spend copious amounts of time applying camouflage and finding military accessories to show their spirit. I wonder if they remembered to finish their homework...



I'm not sure, but I think Bill Hurley is buried somewhere inside that ghillie suit...

From the armed forces to peaceful protesters, students dressed in a variety of costumes to show their support for WHS.

Paul Duffy shows his true colors while one of Mr. Fardy's science classes surround him with school spirit and camouflage.

While the gentlemen above may be just a few years too young to enlist, Lance Flaherty does a great job of impersonating television character, Jethro Gibbs of NCIS.

Spirit Week RETRO DAY

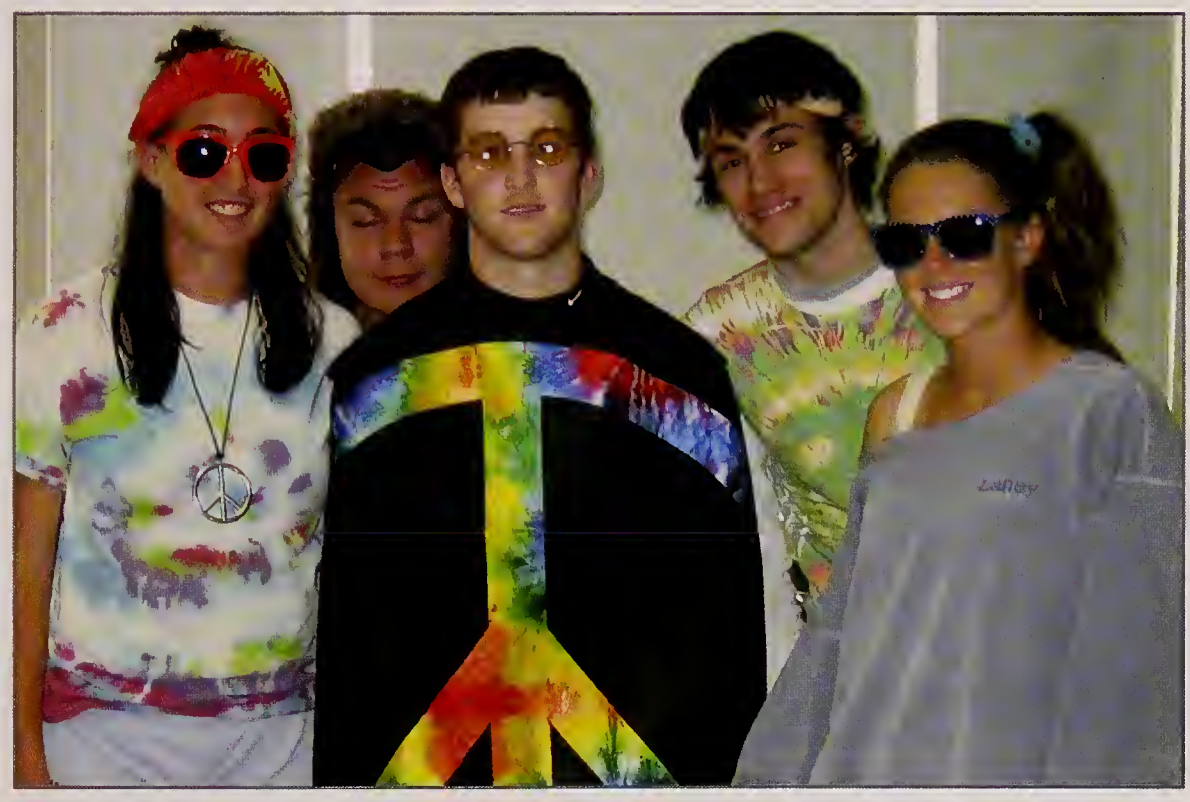
After a day of military-inspired costumes, Wilmington High School transformed into a time capsule of various decades past with a Retro Day theme. Students were seen parading through the halls and sitting in classrooms wearing slicked hair, leather jackets, flash dance outfits, and even some flapper dresses. Demonstrating tremendous school spirit and pride, all four grades actively participated, making this Retro Day one for the books!

Groups of friends dressed in matching outfits to help prove just how much Wilmington school spirit they have!

Uh-oh! I think we need an administrator over here before a teacher has to break up a fight!

While some students dressed in outfits common to a general time period, others dressed as specific people.

From hippies to flappers, WHS students got creative when it came to selecting their costumes for this spirit day!



Whether dress in '60s, '70s, or '80s attire, WHS students demonstrated outstanding school spirit through bright colors, funny props and some interesting hair styles...

In grand tradition, the annual Blue and White Day closed out the 2009 Spirit Week festivities. Shades of blue and white coated the hallways as students proudly marched from class to class with white and blue hair, beads, paint, and even a feather boa or two in tow. Before closing out this year's Spirit Week entirely, a lively pep rally was held, bringing together the school in both pride and spirit.

Dream as if you will live forever. Live as if you will die today...2010

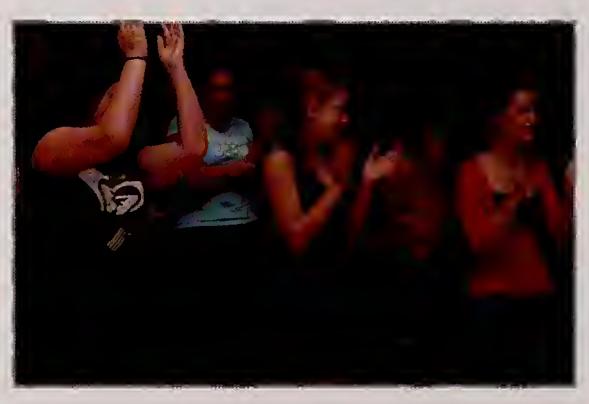
SADD Dance

In November 2009, Mrs. Estrada, Ms. Hoffmann, and the members of the Wilmington High School SADD club hosted an informal Friday the 13th dance in the WHS gymnasium. The dance lasted into the night, playing songs that were enjoyed by all as students helped raise funds for the Students Against Destructive Decisions organization.

The first dance to be sponsored by the Students Against Destructive Decisions group, this event will hopefully set a trend for future informal dances at Wilmington High School!



Whether hanging with friends or line dancing out on the dance floor, these students had a wonderful evening.

Finished decorating the gym for the dance, these SADD members were ready for fun!

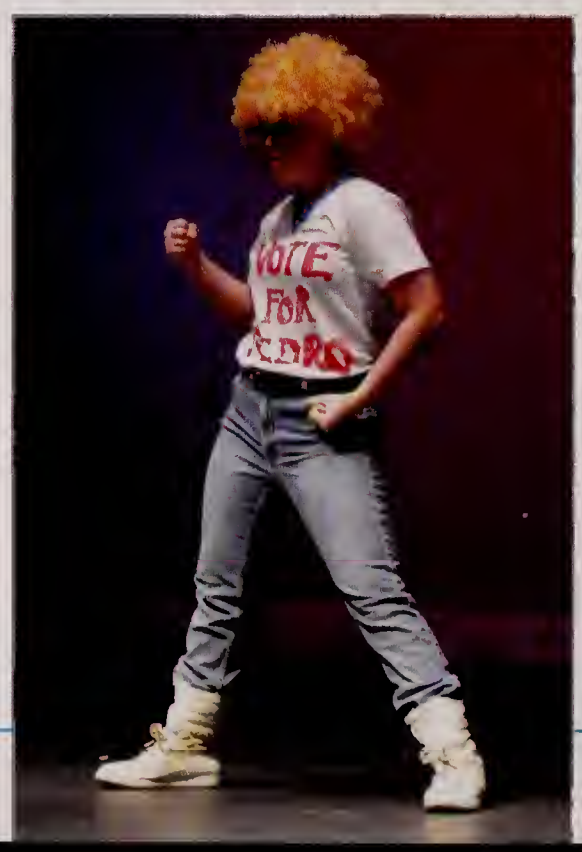
Groups and individuals took turns performing for the crowd while the DJ helped set the mood with fun lighting and good music.

Students enjoyed a fun night of dancing and spending time with friends while helping to support a good cause: the Students Against Destructive Decisions program!

Mr. & Miss WHS

On Tuesday, November 17, 2009, the annual Mr. and Miss WHS Competition was held in the high school auditorium. Seven contestants competed for the two coveted titles. Based on talent, spirit, skits, and an interview, the contestants were judged by fellow WHS teachers. From stand-up comedy to movie parodies, the seven brought a wide variety of acts to the show. Cole Carter and Former Miss WHS Stephanie Weymouth entertained the audience as everyone waited in anticipation for the results. After the ballots were tallied, Sophomore Phil Lentini and Junior Kia Dunn were crowned as the new reigning Mr. and Miss WHS!

Is that you, Mr. and Miss WHS? Kia Dunn dressed as Willy the Wildcat in order to demonstrate her school spirit to the entire audience.



From comedy routines to displays of spirit, each contestant gave their best performance while trying to impress the judges!

"Rock Band" and "Napoleon Dynamite" were huge crowd pleasers during the talent portion of the competition. Future competitors, take note!

The evening started off with an a cappella performance by WHS's SoundScape.

Mr. WHS: Phil Lentini, Miss WHS: Kia Dunn, 2009 Contestants: Kellie Moon, Emily D'Amelio, Kyle Bernardo, Rich Barry, and Michael Simonelli.

Thanksgiving

Wednesday, November 25, 2009 marked two special occasions for WHS. Kicking off the 2009 Thanksgiving Break, the football team hosted its annual pep rally, celebrating the end of the fall sports season and building energy for the annual Wilmington-Tewksbury Thanksgiving Day football game. Sophomore Phil Lentini reprised his Mr. WHS spirit routine, performing the rap he had written about the WHS sports program. Following the rally, members of the community gathered in the front lobby for the unveiling of the Class of 2009's gift: a beautiful display case honoring the men and women in town who have served in the armed forces.

Football Co-Captains Evan Butters, Denis Gingras and John Moriarty worked to build up team spirit and energy for the big Thanksgiving Day game against Tewksbury.

Helping to get the crowd energized, the WHS Cheerleading squad and Marching Band performed between speeches. And as a special treat, Phil Lentini reprised his Mr. WHS spirit rap (lyrics printed on page 118).

Class of 2009 Advisors Mrs. Dawn Martell and Mrs. Alba Santana pose for a moment in front of the veiled case prior to everyone's arrival.

Several prominent members from the Wilmington community were in attendance for the unveiling, including former English teacher Mr. Matt Joyce, Town Manager Mr. Michael Caira, and Superintendent of Wilmington Public Schools Mrs. Joanne Benton, as well as a number of WHS alumni and friends.

For their parting gift to Wilmington High School, the Class of 2009 donated this beautiful display case, located in the main lobby of the high school. Filled with the images of Wilmington alumni who have served in the various branches of the Armed Forces, this case will be appreciated for many years to come. Thank you, Class of 2009!

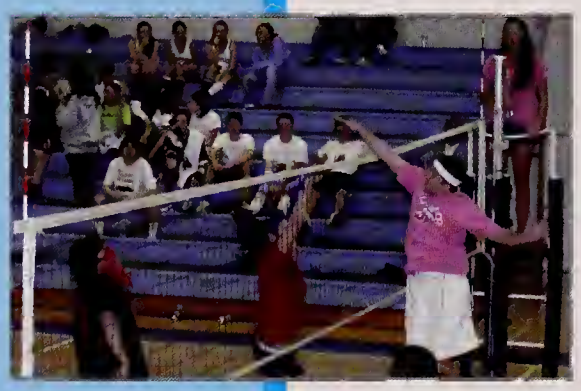
Seniors vs. Faculty

VOLLEYBALL & BASKETBALL

Tuesday, November 24, 2009 marked the return of the annual Senior verses Faculty sporting events. Taking on the teachers and administration on the volleyball court, the Class of 2010 demonstrated their impressive skills...in wearing matching t-shirts decorated with inventive team names.

As teams took turns playing against the WHS educators, others watched on as both sides displayed their athleticism and sportsmanship. In the end, both sides had successful matches but the final tally left the faculty with the win. Better luck next year to the Class of 2011!

Seniors flocked to the courts to have their shot at beating their favorite teachers in the annual Senior vs. Faculty Volleyball game!



Including teachers, administrators and tech support, the faculty took on the seniors in two exciting Senior vs. Faculty events this year.

On March 10th at 7 pm in the Wilmington High School gym the epic match-up played out once again between the seniors and the faculty. Seniors took turns going up against the faculty trying to get a win and show their superiors a thing or two about basketball. From the tip off, the intensity was present on both sides. The Senior boys had their hands full with Mr. Sundberg and Mr. Taylor, but they played hard. The desire to win was shown especially in a monstrous block of Mr. Maloney by Matt Celeste. Great passion was also displayed as Omair Shaik and Mr. Hackett dove to the floor fighting for the ball. Impressive plays were made by all the teams including outstanding passes and shots by Denis Gingras. "The Ball Hogs" came up big with an individual victory over the faculty to give the seniors a lead, but in the end the boys failed to handle the size and strength of the faculty. With the help of some possibly biased refereeing by Mrs. Martel, the male faculty pulled out a victory. The senior girls dominated the female faculty, showing off superior athleticism with plenty of steals and break away points.

All in all, the event was very fun and a great opportunity for the students and faculty to have fun outside of learning in the classroom.

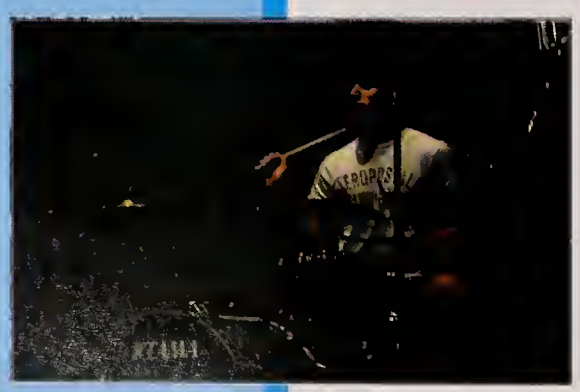
Showing their school spirit and good sportsmanship, the various teams had a fun night of shooting hoops.

Talent Show

On March 19th at 7pm, the most talented students met to show their skills. Brilliantly hosted by Emily D'Amelio and Phil Lentini, the night was pack full of amazing acts producing cheers, claps, tapping feet, and laughs. Allison Dancewicz and McKenzie O'Brien danced with grace, beauty, and heart. Jump style and hip hop acts made everyone want to dance. Brendan Mooney made the crowd laugh with his WHS-themed comedy act. The bands Probable Cause and At the Ready performed along with piano man Eric Surrete, accompanied by Mike Semonelli, and Across the Spectrum (comprised of Steve Lowell on guitar, Dana Ferranti on bass, and Alex Sirois on drums) stunned everyone with their skill to the point in which the cheers turned to silent awe. The audience enjoyed beautiful poetry from Kay Tumino and a rap by James Johnston. And the talented voices of Katia Reily, Kia Dunn, Cody Nilsen, Stephanie Weymouth, Lauren Azevedo, Kristen Fogarty and Megan Torres filled the auditorium.

When the votes were tallied the winners emerged from tight decisions. Across the Spectrum and Katia Reily tied for third, second place went to the hilarious Brendan Mooney, and the winner of the amazingly competitive contest was Kyody (Kia Dunn and Cody Nilsen) for their amazing duet.

The entire show was incredible, with countless number of sights and sounds that will not soon be forgotten. It was loud, funny, beautiful, and in all meanings of the word, awesome.



Brendan Mooney gave a crowd pleasing performance with his comedy routine while a number of bands performed live on stage!

Students from all grade levels participated in the evening's events, including junior James "JJ" Johnston and senior Katia Reilly.

Performances ranged from singing and musical acts to dancing and comedy. Those in attendance enjoyed an evening of variety and talent!

Cody Nielson and Kia Dunn impressed the judges with their musical talents.

written and performed by
Phil Lentini

Hut, hut and I'm lookin' for the pass,
Watchin' my receivers as I take a step back.
I break a tackle, to symbolize I'm manly,
Then I throw a touchdown like my name is Sean Hanley.
I ball it up, and I nail mad 3's.
I don't try, everything's a breeze.
When I cross them up, my opponents are real murky.
I take it to the hole like I'm Mike Murphy.
Step to the plate, tap my bat on my shoes,
I look at the pitcher as I take strike two.
Here comes another, and I bomb it to the fence.
Another home run for Nick Boutoures.
I have green cleats and a wicked fast shot.
I do crazy moves like my name is Gott.
I'll school you after the ball is caught,
'Cuz my name is Evan Butters, and I score a lot.
I play B-ball, and baseball, don't you know.
I'm Mr. Varsity like Vinny Scifo.
Like Marty, and Rosa take a shot on me? No,
I'm stopping all these shooters you can call me the po-po.
Left, right and I'm runnin' down the track.
I'm winnin' by three strides as I take a glance back.
I start trying, and I get a whole lot farther,
Then I cross the line just like I'm Caleb Rogers.
I golf it up, and I get mad pars.
When I drive the ball, it goes really far.
I go to the course and I get another birdie.
Is my name Tiger? Aw hell no, it's Aubrey.
I step on the mat, and I look in his eyes.
He looks scared; I'm not surprised.
I get him down and put him in a pin.
My name is Jay Perry and I always win.
I play hockey and I'm really good.
I'll hit you in the boards like my names Dan Cush.
I play lacrosse, and my trick moves are ritzy.
I put it in the net like my nickname is Fitzy.
Back and forth and we got a nice volley.
I spike it down the line like Dana Ferranti.
I serve it up like I'm workin' at the deli,
Then I bump the ball like my name is Steph Kelly.
Wilmington Sports, we are in your dreams.
We come out of nowhere like the field hockey team.
We dominate Cape Ann, and they think were mean.
My name is Phil Lentini and I'm out, peace.

FOOTBALL

The Wilmington High School Football team had a great 2009 season, finishing 8-3. Throughout the season, the team had great leadership from Senior Captains Evan Butters, John Moriarty and Denis Gingras.

The team faced a very challenging schedule through the whole season, yet a strong defense and ruthless running game characterized the 2009 team. Elite backs and receivers were powered by an overpowering line which aided to many wins. Defensively, nearly every opponent struggled running the ball against the tough front, powerful linebackers, smart corners, and skilled safeties.

There was no better way to cap off a great season than beating the Redmen from Tewksbury. Heart, strength and determination led the Wildcats to a win over Tewksbury. The season was like no other and thanks to great coaching, it will be a season never to be forgotten.

Coach M. Barry; Team Roster: K. Albanese, M. Amentola, R. Barry, E. Butters, C. Cazeau, M. Celeste, F. Cerbone, N. Colella, A. Danas, E. Delucia, B. Fennelly, M. Ferreira, G. Fitch, T. Foley, C. Murphy, C. Parrella, J. Phelan, L. Powers, B. Queen, K. Reynolds, L. Russell, R. Russo, M. Tassone, P. Tonra, M. Torres, M. Wamboldt, S. Ward

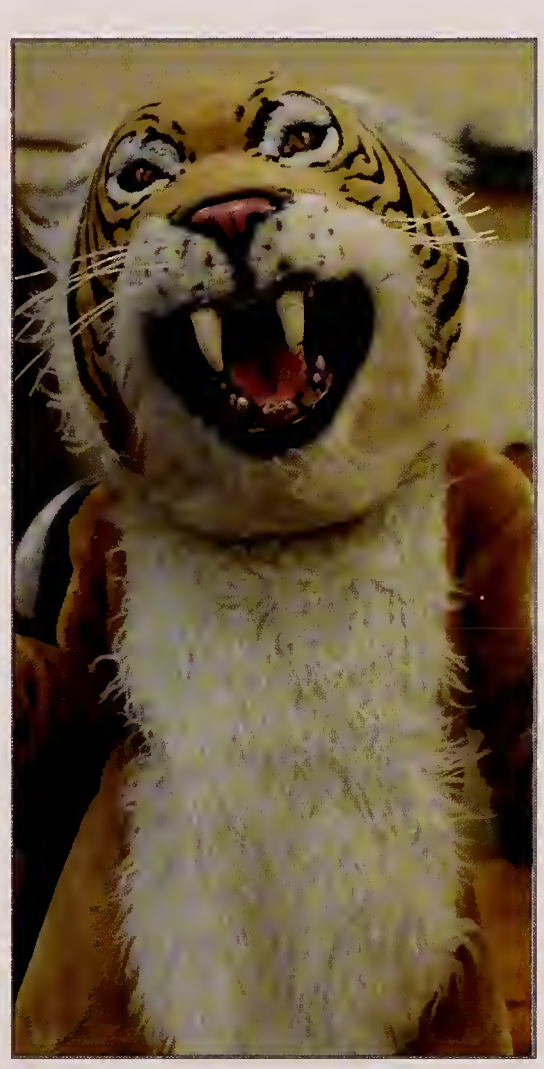
The Varsity Cheerleaders showed their support through both the fall and winter seasons, cheering for the football and basketball teams in addition to performing at several pep rallies.

Led by co-captains Lisa Russell, Kayla Reynolds, and Brittani French along with Seniors Sarah Ward and Kristen Cabral, the team demonstrated an outstanding amount of effort and skill while competing in MSSAA competitions. Each year, the girls have qualified and placed in the state tournament, so it was no surprise that they did it again this year! Go Wildcats!



SOCCER

The Boys Varsity Soccer team met the expectations for this senior laden team. They finished the season with an impressive 18-1-3 record and were the first team to finish the regular season undefeated in school history. The Wildcats beat Wayland, Winchester, and North Andover in the post season to put them in the Division 2 North Finals for the first time in over 10 years.

These Wildcats were led by Senior Captains Marty Bamberg, Caleb Rogers, and Gott Saenchandi. Rogers and Saenchandi were both named to the All-League team, and Senior Mike Murphy, Junior Nick Godzyk and Goal-Keeper Bamberg were selected for the All-Star roster. Bamberg with the help of his defensive unit, including Seniors Colin Foley and James Marra, posted eleven consecutive shutouts for another school record. Congratulations to everybody for a truly, great season!

Coach S. Scanlon; Team Roster: M. Bamberg, J. Briere, C. Cieplik, C. DiCecca, K. Flaherty, C. Foley, C. Garrant, L. Gately, N. Godzyk, S. Kinsella, D. Livermore, J. Malone, J. Marra, M. Murphy, E. Murray, C. O'Connor, A. Owens, C. Rogers, T. Saenchandi, D. Sugrue, J. Warren

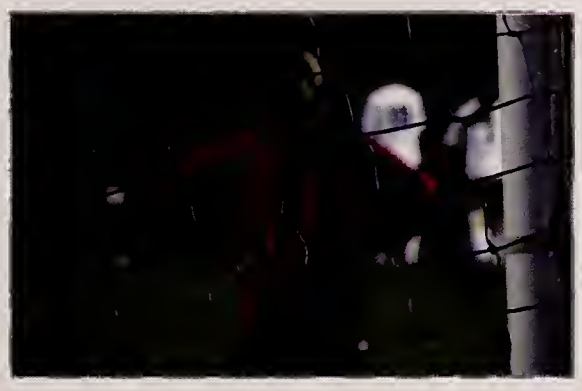
The Girls Varsity Soccer Team had a very memorable season. Although they did not make the state tournament, they had many enjoyable moments together, and this season will not be forgotten by any of the girls.

The team had twelve Seniors on the team, the largest group of seniors the team has ever had. Led by four Senior Captains, Katelyn Hayes, Bry Mara, Brittney McLaughlin, and Jackie Zaremba, the team gave tremendous effort through the season. Danielle Polcari, Jackie Zaremba, and Brittney McLaughlin were named Cape Ann League All Stars. McLaughlin was also named the Cape Ann League All-League Player and the Eastern Mass. All-Star.



FIELD HOCKEY

The Girls Varsity Field Hockey team had an incredible turn around this year. Led by 2009's Coach of the Year, Jodi MacKenzie and Senior Captains Liz Crannell, Laurel Pickett, and Jacqui Lyman, the team finished with a record of 13-4-4 and qualified for the state tournament. The team won the first round against Swampscott, before being defeated by the State Champions Watertown. Regardless of the tournament outcome, the team had a very successful and memorable season.

Coach J. MacKenzie; Team Roster: C. Bush, K. Callahan, E. Crannell, L. D'Orio, F. Gately, E. Jaeschke, N. Luz, J. Lyman, K. Moon, R. Newhouse, S. Palermo, L. Pickett, H. Robarge, D. Sugrue, J. Whooley, C. Wilson

VOLLEYBALL

Coach M. Staffier; Team Roster: K. Aoki, R. Davis, A. Fahey, J. Fudge, T. Hanley, A. Hollenbeck, A. Keane, S. Kelly, N. Neville, A. Perullo, C. Tilton, C. Westeberg, M. White

It is easy to say that the Girls Varsity Volleyball team improved significantly this year. Captains Steph Kelly and Amanda Hollenbeck, along with Coach Mark Staffier, led the team through an outstanding season, earning its best record in many years.

This year, the entire school got involved with the Girls Volleyball events thanks to the Lady Wildcats' "Dig Pink" fundraiser. Walking through the halls, students proudly sported their "Dig Pink" t-shirts. An organization made to help encourage breast cancer awareness, "Dig Pink" received tremendous support from Wilmington, along with several other volleyball teams participating in this year's fundraiser.

Whether on the court playing or selling t-shirts for a good cause, these girls truly proved to their fans that they have tremendous heart! Thanks for a great season, ladies!

CROSS COUNTRY

The Wildcat Boys Cross Country Team enjoyed an encouraging rebuilding year as they took home three more wins than in 2008. Finishing the season at 3-9, the team was led by Senior Captains Tom Valente, Cole Carter, Jeff Kannally, and Sean Keane who motivated their squad to do their best and abide by the team motto: Have Fun.

The team was helped out along the way by talented underclassmen including the team's MVP Zach Sears and "Most Improved Runner of the Year" Jake Russo. Freshman Steve Halas also turned some heads in the Cape Ann League.

With all of these runners returning, next year's team looks promising. Work hard and best of luck!

Coach T. Bradley; Boys Team Roster: B. Carter, C. Carter, N. Connors, M. Ferrara, M. Gake, B. Halas, S. Halas, L. Hayes, J. Kannally, S. Keane, R. Kennedy, A. LaRosa, P. MacCorkle, R. O'Rourke, C. Peffer, J. Russo, A. Sears, Z. Sears, J. Soeum, D. Sullivan, J. Terlaga, T. Valente, Tr. Valente, J. Weber, B. Wong

CROSS COUNTRY

Girls Team Roster: R. Alatalo, M. Barnes, J. Burke, C. Collins, J. Collins, R. Donahue, M. Filippi, A. Fisher, L. Fletcher, C. Fryer, K. Goodwin, H. Kelly, K. MacCorkle, K. MacDougall, C. Peffer, A. Polcari, K. Richardson, N. Romanzo, S. Russo, N. Sirignano, L. Wickwire.

The 2009 season for the Girls Cross Country was one of its best seasons to date, claimed Coach Thomas Bradley. This year, the team was lead by two outstanding runners, Seniors Jessica Burke and Lauren Wickwire.

Another bonus for this 2009 team was the addition of several excellent runners to this year's roster, many being younger siblings to other WHS athletes. Each team member gave it their all and helped to contribute to this year's season. And although the season couldn't last longer, this group certainly had a good time.

GOLF

The Wilmington Varsity Golf team completed its 2009 season with a record of 7-7. With the leadership of seniors Nick Boutoures (captain), Aubrey Ungvarsky, Pat Enwright and Pat Boudreau, the team was able to have one of its best seasons in years. The Wildcats were able to qualify for the state tournament because of their outstanding .500 record. One of the best matches of the year was the season opener against Newburyport, where the Wildcats were able to pull off a home victory to start their incredible and memorable season. After completing their regular season, the Wildcats were fortunate enough to send 6 of their best players to play in the Division 2 North Golf tournament held at their home course, Hillview Country Club. There, they were led by Senior Aubrey Ungvarsky who posted an amazing 8-over par 77. Senior captain Nick Boutoures was not far behind, posting a 9-over par 78. The other two scores counted were both 11-over par 80's posted by Junior Andrew Spurr and Sophmore John Keough. Overall the Wildcats finished in fourth place, missing the third place cut by only 2 strokes. The Wildcats were very grateful to Coach Stephen Lynch who dedicated his time and knowledge to help lead the team in having great season. The team also sends thanks to club pro Chris Carter of Hillview Country Club for helping with almost every need during the fall season.

Team Roster: J. Bleier, P, Boudrea, M. Boutoures, N. Boutoures, G. Carta, M. Chiricosta, J. Keough, P. Enwright, J. Favuzza, M. Gracia, D. Keane, A. Martinello, A. Morris, D. Rolli, A. Spurr, T. Strem, S. Taylor, A. Ungvarsky

WRESTLING

Coach M. Pimental; Team Roster: S. Adams, M. Amentola, B. Brennick, J. Carlin, G. Carta, K. Carter, M. Celeste, S. Dancewicz, A. Furlong, S. Furlong, S. Gilbert, J. Goossens, J. Grealish, C. Halliday, J. Ho, B. Keefe, J. Kendall, C. McGuire, J. O'Neill, J. Perry, D. Poll, N. Powers, C. Rivera, T. Rossetti, J. Soeum, S. Pinazola, T. Strem, S. Surrette

The boys varsity wrestling team of 2010 did quite well as they stayed at the middle of the pack for most of the season. They ended the league with a record of 2-2, getting to 500 which is great! The wildcats overall record was 3-4 which is still great. There was a large accomplishment among the boys on the varsity team, Junior Sean Adams was able to make it to the state tournament and he placed as well. Everyone was ecstatic about this goal won and it will keep the team going strong for years to come!

Varsity Sports

HOCKEY

With sixteen seniors on the roster, the 2009-2010 boys hockey team had the talent and potential to do what no other Wildcat hockey team had done…and they did. The Cats went undefeated during the regular season posting a 16-0-0 record against their Cape Ann League foes convincingly claiming the league title and finishing the entire season with a total record of 21-1-1, the best in school history. It was an exciting season as we watched Captain Dan Cushing launch missiles at the net, Brian Hurley level skaters, and Assistant Captain Zach Rosa shut down many worthy opponents. In recognition of their skills and accomplishments Cushing, Hurley and Rosa as well as Jeff Harris, Jared Ravagni and Liam Gately were all chosen as League All Stars. Rosa earned the additional honor of being selected as League MVP. As the season progressed you could see the chemistry between the players as all four lines proved they could get the job done. An added bonus was Freshman Cam Owens, who brought the crowds at Ristuccia to their feet, as he skated circles around defenders twice his size and then scored effortlessly. Earning a #1 seed in Division 2 North playoffs, the team had high hopes of winning a state title and so did the rest of Wilmington. Their incredible season ended disappointingly when they faced defending State Champions, Newburyport, in the sectional semi-final game. Despite the loss, the team still finished with an impressive record which earned them a mark in WHS hockey history.

Coach S. Scanlon; Boys Team Roster: J. Aucoin, C. Barbaro, E. Barrasso, P. Boudreau, C. Carter, B. Collins, B Coutu, K. Creedon, D. Cushing, R. Derian, P. Duffy, C. Foley, L. Gately, J. Harriss, B. Hurley, J. Langenfeld, J. Malone, K. Moriarty, A. Owens, C. Owens, T. Quilty, J. Ravagni, Z. Rosa

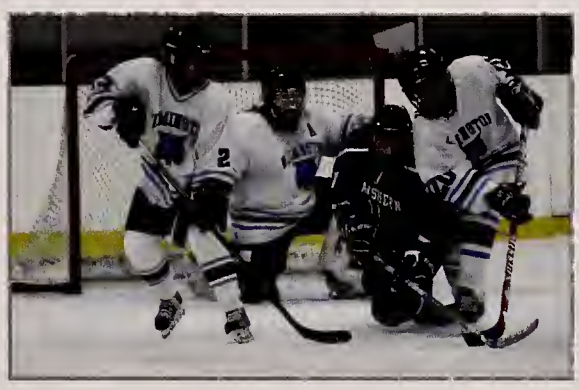
Coach J. McMahon; Girls Team Roster: M. Alondaro, K. Brandano, C. Castellano, L. DePasquale, S. DePasquale, J. Farrell, L. Fitch, R. Gautreau, C. Good, K. Harper, J. Jewkes, C. Kusa, K. MacDougall, M. Maher, D. Mallett, T. Manning, S. McHugh, K. McKenna, R. McLaren, A. Michals, T. Parella, M. Pickett, C. Robarge, M. Roberts, B. Santos, K. Souza, A. Woodbury

The Lady Cats skate on the ice with ease each and every time but this year, it did not seem to be enough. Their record was not all that great but we all know that they tried their best and that their main captains, Meghan Pickett, Kaitlyn Souza and Amelia Woodbury, did their best to lead the team and to keep spirits high.

This season was nothing to be ashamed of, as it was certainly great practice for those young middle-schoolers who have been on the team. The team will be even better next year and will have more to look forward to!



BASKETBALL

The Boys Varsity basketball team in the 2009-2010 season held a record of 5-3 within the league and 9-5 overall. The Wildcats, led by Patrick Enwright, Martin Bamberg and Michael Murphy, played strongly through out their whole season. They put everything they had into playing each game and with that they qualified for the State Tournament. The First game was a tough one and unfortunately they lost in the first round. Although they didn't make it as far as they wanted, they certainly showed their talent and pride of playing on the Wildcat team. The Boys Varsity Basketball team will keep going strong in the coming years.

Coach J. Maiella; Boys Team Roster: K. Albanese, M. Bamberg, J. Bozzella, E. Butters, C. Dicecca, P. Enwright, C. Frissore, N. Godzyk, S. Hanley, T. McCarthy, K. Mitchell, M. Murphy, D. O'Dea, J. Parsons, C. Peffer, V. Scifo, I. Sullivan

Coach J. Keane; Girls Team Roster: K. Aoki, M. Brown, E. Crannell, A. Derian, A. Fahey, J. Fudge, A Gonzalez, T. Hanley, A. Keane, C. O'Flaherty, A. Robbins, M. Stinson

The Girls Varsity basketball team in the 2009-2010 season held a record of 4-4 within the league and 7-6 overall. With a tough non-league schedule and strong competition, the team was still able to qualify for the State Tournament. The lady cats, led by Amy Fahey and Allison Robbins, were able to make it to the third round of the State Tournament and they were excited the whole way getting there. Unfortunately in the third round of the tournament they were beaten out by Melrose, another very strong competitor. Over all the girls played brilliantly, and it was a season to be proud of!

INDOOR TRACK

The Boys Indoor Track always does some remarkable things during their season. To start off, the Wildcats had a 3-4 record for the season. They would always like to do better but some individual boys did very well for their team. Caleb Rogers, Marc Shibilia, along with Joe Warren were all able to qualify for States before the season's end. They are all top players on the team and strut their stuff, for sure. The boys track team has always been towards the top of the totem pole within the league, and even when we change in 2011, they will remain strong competitors

Coaches B. Cripps and M. Kinney; Boys Team Roster: E. Adalto, A. Anwar, R. Barry, I. Conway, E. Copeland, A. Desimone, M. Donnell, N. Downs, A. Fino, J. Fitzgerald, K. Flaherty, L. Flaherty, D. Folk, D. Fothergill, B. Halas, L. Hayes, W. Hurley, J. Kannally, S. Kinsella, A. Leiskau, D. Livermore, P. MacCorkle, A. Maienza, J. Marra, R. O'Rourke, E. Randell, C. Rogers, A. Sears, Z. Sears, M. Shibilia, A. Sirois, J. Terlaga, T. Valente, T. Valente, T. Valente, J. Warren, P. Warren, B. Wong, R. Woods

Coach T. Bradley; Girls Team Roster: M. Barnes, J. Braid, J. Burke, K. Campbell, A. Cappuccio, C. Collins, A. Days, G. DiNuccio, M. Filippi, A. Fisher, M. Flaherty, L. Fletcher, M. Folk, C. Fryer, O. Fuller, F. Gately, K. Hayes, H. Kealos, H. Kelly, J. Lacey, N. Lunt, J. Maienza, B. McLaughlin, P. Miller, M. Randell, K. Richardson, B. Smith, A. Steenbrugen, A. Ungvarsky, J. Weaver, L. Wickwire, C. Woods

The Girl's Indoor Track team didn't do exactly what they had hoped they would, but who said they never had fun! Each and every girl on the team tried their best but along with that they bonded greatly as a team. Although they ended the season with a 0-8 record, there were some few select girls who made accomplishments of their own. A handful of our Junior girls went on to CAL's, two of which placed in sixth. Another amazing accomplishment that was made during the Indoor Track season was Britt McLaughlin's Athlete of the Year Award! We are all so proud of her. She and girls like her are the inspiration for the girls in the years to come.

The Wilmington Academic Decathlon competes with teams of students from high schools across the state in a series of ten academic events. These events cover Economics, Language and Literature, Mathematics, Music, Fine Arts and Social Science. Students are given awards based both on individual and team achievements. A unique aspect of the program is that each nine-member team must consist of three students each with "A", "B" and "C" grade point averages. Students may be in any grade and an unlimited number of alternatives may also compete.

Drama Club

WHS' Drama Club had another phenomenal year, producing Jason Robert Brown's critically acclaimed hit, Songs for a New World. This program is sponsored by the Boston Law Firm of Brown, Rudnick, Freed, & Gesmer. Students from the high school are being coached by Mr. Staffier and Ms. Kassin. With 115 high school teams from all regions of the commonwealth, the goal of the Mock Trial Program is to further an understanding of the law, court procedures, and our legal system while helping students to sharpen their analytical, listening and speaking skills. It also seeks to promote better communication and cooperation between the school community and legal profession.

Model UN

Model UN/Debate Club gives students the opportunity to discover, through simulation, how the United Nations works to collectively promote world peace and cooperate on a variety of international issues. The main focus of the club is preparation for conferences, in which each student is assigned a country and a council of the UN. Student delegates then debate a current international affair and must work to compromise and pass a compromise resolution. This year, our club attended conferences at St. John's High School, St. John's Prep, Boston College High School and Fitchburg State College in addition to running our own in-school practice conferences.

With activities such as Red Ribbon Week and Grim Reaper Day, as well as the Mock Car Crash before the senior prom, SADD has helped raise awareness in the Wilmington school community about the risks and consequences of destructive decisions. SADD has also worked with the middle school to initiate plans for a new SADD group there. "SADD Social Solutions" is a program designed to educate fifth graders about bullying and peer pressure. SADD students from the high school perform skits in order to create a dialogue with fifth graders about positive social choices. The group had a very successful year and looks forward to many more.

Strings

Strings Attached is a string orchestra that begins in 4th grade and continues through grade 12. A series of traditions along a path help the orchestra build team spirit and lifelong friendships while the students perfect their playing technique.

Once the string players qualify at Lake George, NY by attaining a minimum score of 85 from two judges, they become Wilmington's international ambassadors and embark on a three city concert tour of a European country. History, geography, foreign language, music, self sufficiency, and self awareness combine in a seven day adventure that tests and highlights each student's ability to be a mature player on a world stage. Strings also supports their school by providing and maintaining the HS lawn sign, representing the school at the Governor's Christmas tree lighting ceremony at the State House, and receiving recognition from the Governor and MA Senators and Reps. at a State House performance at the Grand Staircase. Performances at nursing homes and senior centers round out this very unique organization whose motto is: The Best Things In Life Have Strings Attached.

Strings has represented Wilmington High School in Quebec, England, Ireland, twice in Italy, and twice in France. In 2011, they will represent their school on a concert tour of Austria.

The Senior class officers have worked very hard to raise money for the Class of 2010. We have had our annual Mr. and Ms. WHS Contest, and the Prom Fashion Show with the Junior class. We are also looking forward to the traditional Senior vs. Staff Basketball Game, along with the school Talent Show. This year, the Senior Prom will be held at the Danversport Yacht Club on May 7th, 2010. The class is also going to end the school year with a senior night lock-in. It has been a memorable four years of high school. Thank you to our class advisers, Ms. Kassin and Mrs. Hooper, for helping our class reach this far.

"Dream as if you'll live forever, live as if you'll die today".

The officers and advisors of the class of 2011 have been together as a team for two years running. During the school year they have worked to organize various fundraisers for their class, collect dues, and most importantly, prepare for the Junior Prom (held on March 26th, 2010).

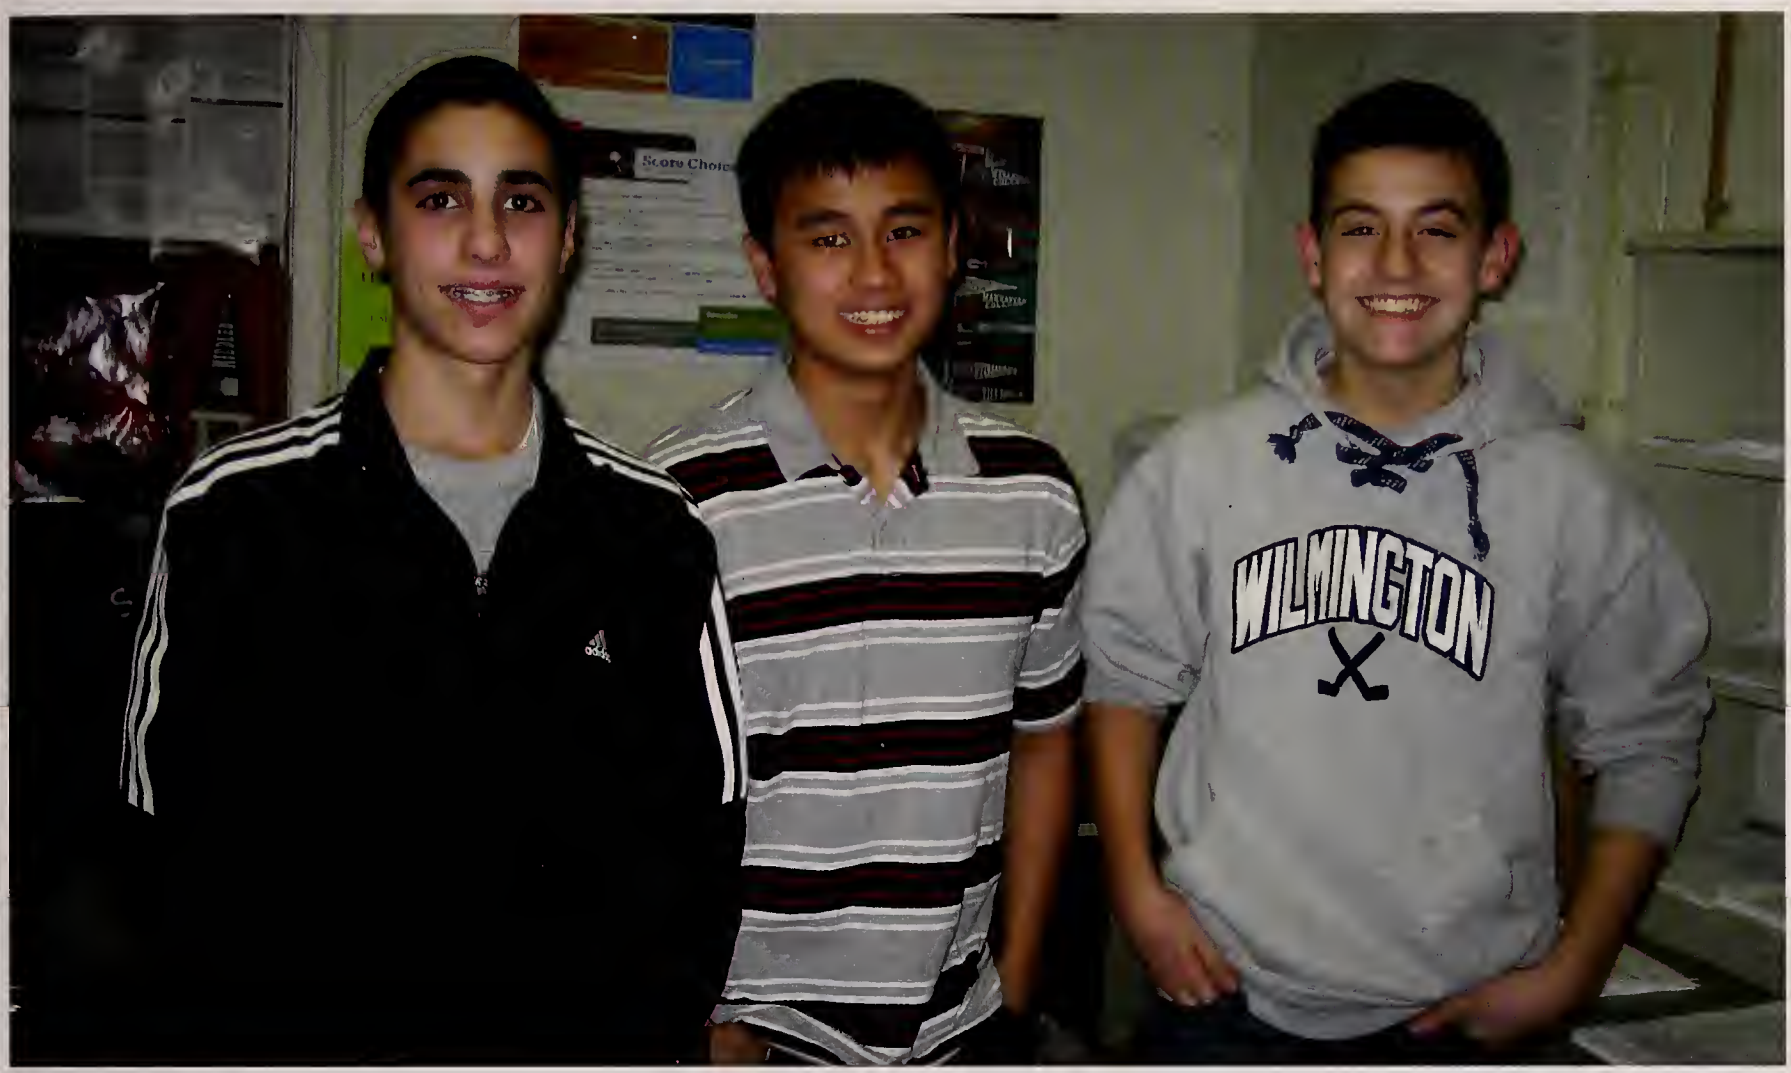
Class of 2013 Officers



This Class of 2013 officers have worked hard to support school-wide events and build a base with their fundraising efforts. The monies raised have come from a bake sale, a cookie dough fundraiser, and being an active part of this year's Spring Fling.
